PRIVACY POLICY

FATS Media Lab will seek to ensure that all information held, used or disclosed to FATS Media Lab and its employees is held in accordance with the objectives of the collection and with the National Privacy Principles and other applicable Privacy laws.

FATS Media Lab does not share sell or rent any information about our Web Site visitors to third parties for commercial purposes. It is our intent to keep any personal information you provide us (such as name, postal address, telephone number, or e-mail address), confidential, unless we are required by law or business necessity to divulge it. The Personal information you may provide by using this web site is stored in a secure location, is accessible only by designated staff and is used only for the purposes for which you provide the information or to which you have otherwise consented.

FATS Media Lab may collect, store and use general, non-specific and broad demographic information about visitors to our Web Site. This information is used to help administer and diagnose problems with our servers and our Web Site. For example, we may keep track of the dates, times and number of visitors to our Web Site. We may also collect information about a visitor's ISP or home server and through the use of online forms, which may be completed by a visitor. We may also collect the name, address, e-mail address or other personal information. Finally we may also keep track of the location of other Web Sites from which our visitors link to our Web Site. When you use the FATS Media Lab Web Site, you consent to the collection and use of your non-personal information by FATS Media Lab.

FATS Media Lab will take reasonable steps to protect information held from misuse or loss from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure including implementing physical access security measures and computer and network security.

Our Web Site may contain links to other Web Sites. FATS Media Lab is not responsible for the privacy practices, privacy statements, or the content of such Web Sites.

If FATS Media Lab alters our privacy policy in any way, we will endeavour to post the changes on our Web Site in a timely manner so you are aware of changes that may affect you.
